

BIGGEST EVER BARGAIN-BASEMENT BIRD BOOK SALE!

THURSDAY, 26 JANUARY 2017

The numerous fine books offered include titles about birds of Australasia and other countries or geographical areas, plus many about a particular bird family, group, or species, of Australasia or elsewhere.

ALL BOOKS OFFERED AT RIDICULOUSLY LOW, BUT STRICTLY CASH PRICES

MULTIPLE COPIES OF A GOOD MANY TITLES AVAILABLE

BRING A LARGE STRONG BAG!

Arrive at 2 pm for the sale shortly thereafter – 1st come, 1st served!

Prior to the sale, The Friths will gladly show and discuss their extensive personal ornithological library to interested people. If not interested in books, then bird the garden and rainforest driveway.

The Friths' place is at the terminal, lower, end of 3.5 km long Pei Road. Their gate is the right hand one of two blocking the end of Pei Road (with a large NO ACCESS sign on it). Then, after 400 metres through rainforest, you will reach the house – mind the cassowaries!

Pei Road is near the Topaz Road end of the Glen Allyn Road.

If coming via the Topaz Road turn right onto the Glen Allyn Road (sign posted as going to Malanda) and Pei Road if the first on the left.

If coming from Malanda take the Glen Allyn Road on the left (opposite the Fuel Station, just past the paddock of the Malanda School) as you head out of town toward the Palmerston Highway and follow Glen Allyn all the way (well signed at each junction), past the tea factory (turn left just after that) until you see Pei Road on your right (just before you hit the Topaz Road T-junction).

IF YOU GET LOST CALL 4096 8105.
