

Coastal Wet Tropics KEY BIODIVERSITY AREAS Enjoy and help protect our nature hotspot

Join us for a free workshop and field trip

Learn about:

- Key Biodiversity Areas -Globally important nature hotspots
- KBA Health-checks to help with local conservation work and global comparisons
- Monitoring birds with BirdLife Australia's free birdata app

More Details on www.birdlife.org.au/KBA

Fernwren, Bower's Shrike Thrush and Southern Cassowary are all trigger species for the Coastal wet tropics KBA (Photos: Ian Montgomery)

WHEN & WHERE

- Friday 13th of April 9am-4pm
Workshop: C4 Meeting Room, 535 Porters Promenade, Mission Beach
- Lunch, morning & afternoon tea included

PRESENTER

Dr Golo Maurer, KBA Program
Manager, BirdLife Australia

RSVP BY 11/04/18 TO

Golo Maurer

E: golo.maurer@birdlife.org.au

M: 0467 444 114

Supported by C4

COMMUNITY FOR COASTAL
AND CASSOWARY CONSERVATION

birds are in our nature

